Employee Spotlight

Alayne Lee

Originally from Ruidoso, New Mexico, Alayne began her golf career in 2009 at Rainmakers Golf Course in Alto, New Mexico. In 2012, Alayne moved to York, Pennsylvania to further her work experience at Regent's Glen Country Club, where she was a jack of all trades; from managing the Pro Shop and running tournaments to assisting with the accounting in their off-seasons. Fast forward to March of 2015, when Alayne joined the San Angelo Country Club staff as the First Assistant Golf Professional. She finalized her PGA education by obtaining her Class A certification and official membership to the PGA. Alayne has significantly improved the Junior programs over the last years at the Club; greatly increasing youth turnout and involvement in the seasonal PGA Jr. League as well with camps and clinics. When she's not working the golf shop or giving lessons, Alayne likes spending time with her German Sheppard puppy, Karma, hanging out with her friends and family, or simply enjoying a round of golf. If you see Alayne around the Club, please be sure to thank her for her dedicated service to the membership!
