Employee Spotlight

Albert Contreras

In May of 2000, Albert Contreras began working kitchen staff and has faithfully served the Club since. Originally from Sonora, Albert has been living in San Angelo for most of his life. Albert works full time at the Club and part time at the Peppercorn Grill, providing for his wife Linda and their four children. Albert is extremely creative, always designing fruit sculptures for events and much more. More than dependable, Albert never misses a day, and is always punctual in the mornings opening up the kitchen and making sure everything is prepared for the day. Working the early morning shift, Albert is responsible for the daily soup and makes the majority of early morning food orders. "I've never met a more loyal and hardworking employee, he is pivotal behind the scenes," said Curtis Oakley. "Knowing every aspect of the kitchen, Albert is a crucial part of our team," Daniel Friedrich boasts. When Albert does get vacation time, he enjoys spending it with his family. If you see Albert around the Club, be sure to thank him for his dedication and service!

Dear Members,

2016 has been a great year for San Angelo Country Club and we are only midway through! The course is in excellent condition thanks to Jim Pomroy and his staff and of course the copious amounts of rainfall. The 57th Annual Men's Partnership was another successful and smoothly ran tournament thanks to our incredible staff. We would like to invite you to the Semi-Annual Stockholders Meeting July 28th, at 7:00p.m. All Club members, stockholding and non-stockholding are encouraged to attend. We will be discussing the results from the Membership Survey sent out in January and also future endeavors the Club is looking into. We would appreciate your participation and hope to see you there!

Thank you,

Scott Stephens

Prior to the Stockholders Meeting beginning at 7:00, we will have a Member Appreciation Mixer. Starting at 5:30p.m. in the ballroom, all members are welcome to come out and enjoy complimentary snacks and drink specials! We encourage you to stick around for the Stockholders Meeting following the Mixer to discuss Membership Survey results.
